Booksmart parents guide

BOOKSMART (2019) (Kaityln Dever, Beanie Feldstein) (R) QUICK TAKE: Comedy: Two high school seniors, who have neglected their social lives to get good grades, decide to attend a wild party the night before graduation. PLOT: It's the day before graduation, and Amy (KAITLYN DEVER) and Molly (BEANIE FELDSTEIN) are best friends who have neglected their social lives in high school in order to get good grades and be accepted to top schools. Thus Molly, who is the class president, is planted when she learns that lovers of heavy parties such as Nick (MASON GOODING), Theo (EDUARDO FRANCO) and Annabelle (MOLLY GORDON) a.k.a. Triple A (so named for the promiscuous roadside assistance it provides to high school children) have also been accepted into similar schools. Consequently, she convinces Amy that they have to attend a big party Nick is throwing and cut loose for once. The only problem is that they don't know where it's being held and therefore accidentally end up on a yacht owned by uber-rich Jared's (SKYLER GISONDO) family. The only other student present is wild girl Gigi (BILLIE LOURD) who somehow manages to finish everywhere Amy and Molly do for the rest of the night. After a series of other mishaps and wrong turns - even when they get a ride from Main Brown (JASON SUDEIKIS) that moonlights like a ridesharing driver and accidentally end up high after another encounter with Gigi - they call their cool teacher Miss Fine (JESSICA WILLIAMS) who gives them a ride to the party. There, and while Theo hits this teacher, Molly expects Nick to take an interest in her just as Amy tries to do with Ryan (VICTORIA RUESGA), a girl she hopes will be lesbian like her, unaware that Hope (DIANE SILVERS) is the one who really has one thing for her. With things that don't go as planned and expected, the two friends have to maneuver their way through the night and those expectations, not to mention making sure they've just graduated the next day. WILL THE KIDS WANT TO SEE IT? It's a good bet that many teenagers will be interested. WHY MPAA RATED IT: R For strong sexual content and language throughout, drug use and drinking - all involving teenagers. This is just the introduction of this review. I've subscribed to ScreenIt.com for over a decade. Check during the week to take advantage of its incredible services. Not only does your site provide insight into the content a movie offers, I found reviews and ratings Our take for each movie to be right on the money every time. I have referred dozens of friends to this service for my #1 to decide whether or not to show a movie to my children, or watch one myself, is ScreenIt.com! Josh Nisbet Director, State of CA Public Sector I signed up for weekly screen reviews a long time ago when my kids were young and I wanted to know more about the movies before I went to a theater or rented. Now one child is in law school, another in the bachelor's degree, and I still read his weekly screen! It helps me know what my husband and I want to see or rent, and what to have waiting for at home that we will all enjoy when my children return home. I depend on the screen being reviewed. They usually just present the facts and let me decide if the film is appropriate or of interest to my family and me. Thanks for providing this service, Screen It! Patti Petree Winston Salem, NC I have 4 children who are now in college. I signed up for Screen It when my kids were pre-teens. Often my children would ask to see a movie with a friend and I wish I could preview the film before giving permission. A friend told me about ScreenIt.com and I found it was the next best thing to preview a movie. The amount of violence, sexual content or language were always concerns for me and my husband as we raised innocent children with morals. We constantly fought against the peer pressure our children received to watch films that, in our view, were questionable. With the evidence we received on Screen It, our kids couldn't even fight us when we heard that a movie might have been inappropriate for them to watch. Thanks, Screen It. Continue to make this service useful available to everyone, but especially young parents. Christine Doherty Machesney Park, IL ScreenIt.com is an incredible resource for parents, educators, church groups or anyone who wants to make an informed decision whether a film is suitable for viewing. Reviews and content descriptions are so detailed that I'm how reviewers can put them together. Scott Heathe Vancouver, BC I love the Who screen! I don't know what I would do without him. It's worth the affiliation. Before we take our son to the movies he would take a swi show on the screen first. Thank you very much for doing so. Keep up the good work and keep them coming!! Note that while we do our best to avoid spoilers it is impossible to disguise all the details and some can reveal crucial plot elements. We've gone through several editorial changes since we started covering films in 1992 and older reviews aren't as comprehensive and accurate as recent ones; we plan to review and correct older revisions as resources and time permissions. Our ratings and reviews are based on theatrically released versions of films; In the video there are often unclassified, special, director-cutting or extension versions (usually accurately tagged but sometimes mislabeled) published that contain additional content, which we did not review.
