Grace FranklinInternet Resources for r-sound therapyby Want something new for your r-therapy students? 4. It is minimal pairs at its core, but there is a sound component where you add the first sound e.g. a 'b', 'd' or 's' in this version to another word, to help blend clusters together for example 's-wing' = 'swing', 'or' vs. R minimal pair drills (FREEBIE) by This download includes 20 w/r minimal pair drills. I first made it to better suit my needs when teaching teaching an English phonetics class. Give each student a fly swatter. Also, some great pictures for minimal pair therapy, some work lists and (my favorite) an interactive game using r-controlled vowels. The teacher should demonstrate the activity with the whole class first. This deck works on selecting all of the attributes and/or functions which match a particular animal (in this case, a dog). My changes include from the original version include:Color codingRe-arrangement of some of the vowels and /h/. If the student says a word incorrectly, make sure that everyone hits the word that was actually said and not the one that they may have intended. It can be a useful starting point to get your students to visualize - then verbalize the use of clusters if typical minimal pairs therapy is really hardTypes:Charming r-NO PREP-r speech packet-/r/by This product sample includes materials for your therapy session and supporting homework sheets for carry over for /r/-/r/-/r/ therapy word list-/r/ homework sheets (1)-/r/ therapy sentence list-/r/ sentence homework sheets (1)-/r/ therapy minimal pairs list-/r/ minimal pair homework sheet (1)-/r/ therapy minimal pair sentence list-/r/ minimal pair sentence homework sheets (1)Purchase this individual pack or FULL initial /r/ packet at a discounted price or FULL BOOK for max discounted priceEnglish Phonetic Chartby My version of the English Phoneme chart. As always, if there are any specific decks you would be interested in, please let me know. I present a strip of pictures with minimal paired words and have the student "read" them, reminding them to think about and feel what their tongue and lips are doing to make the sounds in the words. I love to use these to promote awareness and muscle memory. Place them in the sensory bin so the leaves are hidden and the petals are showing HavePage 2This packet features a ton of activities to master /r/ and reduce gliding on the /r/ sound.
